REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Applicant's arguments, filed 10/07/04, with respect to claims 1-9 and 11-20 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-15 has been withdrawn.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the cited references alone or in combination teach the claimed "indicia on the master game card for identifying a maximum allowed jackpot value; the master game card further including a second award identifying means for establishing the identity of at least one game player, and selectively removable element for concealing the second award identifying means which concealing element is removed to reveal the identity of the at least one game player who is awarded an award from the accumulated jackpot when the accumulated jackpot amount equals or exceeds the maximum allowed jackpot value and has not been awarded to at least one of the selected game players identified by the first award identifying means" as recited in claim 1. Furthermore, none of the cited references alone or in combination teach the claimed steps of: "repeating steps a), b), c), d), e), and f) until the entire jackpot is awarded as a prize in step e) or the accumulated jackpot reaches the maximum allowed jackpot value; operating the at least one second concealment element to reveal the identity of at least one game player when the accumulated jackpot value reaches at least the maximum allowed jackpot value and awarding the entire accumulated jackpot value to the at least one player whose identity is revealed upon operating the at least one second concealment element" as recited in claim 16.
